

Mouth-Watering Words:

Chef Pierre has a new menu for his sidewalk café. Look at all the tasty foods he wants to serve his guests.

Think about how each word is used. Does it name something? Does it show action? Does it describe something? Follow the instructions to show that you know how the words are used.

MENU

cheese sandwich
five cream donuts
three pancakes
biscuits and jelly
juicy hamburger
French fries
spaghetti and meatballs
bacon and eggs
fresh spinach salad
pizza for kids
banana cream pie
pineapple milkshake
chocolate cake
sugar cookies

You get free dessert with any order.

The cook fixes each order quickly.

We prepare all orders with love!

Come back soon!

1. Nouns: Which words on the menu name something? Circle them in red.
2. Verbs: Which words show action? Circle them in blue.
3. Adjectives: Which words tell which, what kind, or how many? Circle them in green.
4. Adverbs: Which words tell how, when, or where? Draw a black box around them.
5. Conjunctions: Which words connect two other words? Circle them in purple.